● March 2009 – Nov. 2011: I collaborated with the local television station Constanta TV where I was invited to various television shows and debates on political and social analysis issues. Since March 1st, 2010 I have been a producer and moderator of the broadcasts: Agora Debates and Europolitics in which I promoted civic culture involvement and volunteering;

● January 2012: I am a contributor to the TV station Litoral TV where I am the moderator of the shows: Culture on Coordinates, Ethnic Mosaic, and Book of the Day.

● During 2014 we organized 42 editions of the Caravana Litoral TV which materialized in a journalistic marathon conducted in different localities in Dobrogea. In the Caravan editions, we investigated the real problems of rural communities and created a public platform for discussion between local authorities and county authorities. Various editions of this journalistic endeavor were focused on the ethnic and minority groups living in Dobrogea.

● Between 2005 and 2014 we organized volunteering actions where we launched donation campaigns. Through these actions, we have materially supported dozens of families with various clothes, supplies, food, toys, and everything necessary for daily life.

● From February 2010 to 2013 I was the producer and moderator of Saturday Dialogues broadcast on Radio Dobrogea, a local radio station where we promoted civic culture, involvement, and civic education.

● Since September 2014 I have been appointed Director of the Department of Image, Communication and Marketing at "Ovidius" University in Constanța.

Teaching activity

Since 2005 I have carried out university teaching activities at the Faculty of History and Political Sciences of the University "Ovidius" Constanta, being titular on disciplines in the field of political science, sociology, and anthropology. Among the subjects taught were: History of Political Thinking, Political Philosophy, Political Ideologies, Political Anthropology, Cultural Anthropology, Political Sociology, Sociology of International Relations, Sociology of Rural and Urban Communities, Sociology of Communication.

Scientific research and advisory activities:

- November 2008: intervention with the theme "Impact of social anthropology in Romanian film" within the framework of the Anthropological Film Festival organized by the Institute of Anthropology of the Romanian Academy;
- May 2009: held the conference "Political Culture of Dobrogen Political Identities" at the Institute of Political Sciences and International Relations of the Romanian Academy;
- April 2007: participation in the International Conference "Gramsci and Sartre – two great thinkers of the 20th century" – organizers of the Institute for Philosophical Studies of Naples, the "Ovidius" University of Constanta and the Institute of Political Sciences and International Relations of the Romanian Academy;
- June – July 2009: I researched the Romanian communities in the south of the Danube (Bulgaria) where I did anthropological studies in different rural settlements, my research being necessary in the drafting of the doctoral thesis with the title: IDENTITES AND POLITICAL INSTITUTIONS IN DOBROGEA 1850-1940.
- April – August 2008: We carried out field research in Aromanian communities in Macedonia, Bulgaria and Albania. The material we collected and selected constituted the database necessary to draw up the case study for the doctoral thesis, as well as for other studies concerning the problems of anthropology and the collective mind;
- June – July 2008: the Romanian communities in southern Dobrogea where I did anthropological studies in different rural settlements, my research being necessary for the drafting of my doctoral thesis. We have also researched communities of Russians-Lipovans, Germans, Italians in the cases we encounter in Dobrudja;

- July – August 2010: I have researched the Aromanian communities living in Albania, Macedonia, and Greece;

Since April 2009 I have been a member of the scientific council of the media magazine Collegium Mediensis.

Since January 2010 I am Secretary-General of Editorial of the Romanian Journal of Eurasian Studies, a quality in which I supervised the appearance of several issues of the magazine mentioned.

In September 2017 I publicly presented the doctoral thesis entitled Colonizations and Migrations in Dobrogea 1880-1950 - an approach from the vision of the school of Gusti. The doctoral thesis was carried out within the Doctoral School of Sociology of the University of Bucharest and supported before the commission appointed by the order of the Rector of the University. The rating awarded by the committee – Very good.

Research projects

I was a member of a research team implementing a competition-funded project worth at least 50,000 lei

The E-BRIDGE portal is created as the main part of the project "Building a virtual bridge between citizens by developing a website that presents and preserves the historical and cultural heritage of the cross-border area for sustainable growth and the development of the image and identity of the region". The project is a joint initiative of organizations from Bulgaria and Romania and is implemented under the Cross-Border Cooperation Programme Bulgaria Romania 2007-2013 under Priority Axis 3 - Economic and Social Development. In this project, I contributed a four-part study entitled: Communities and Traditions at Bulgarians and Romanians in Dobrogea.

Educational counseling projects:

Etapa a-I-a – FDI

I was a member of the project "Be SMART, be a student!" as an education expert. The project was implemented between October and December 2017 by the "Ovidius" University of Constanta and ran a campaign advising students from 15 high schools located in the rural area of Constanta County during their work visits. The visits were organized in the communes: Cobadin, Cumpăna, Independence, Ciobanu, Nicolae Bălcescu, White Gate, Castelu, Mihail Kogălniceanu, Cogealac, Deleni, Adamclisi, Dobromir, Ostrov, Mihai Viteazu, Topraisar and aimed mainly at guiding students to higher education and the University. The campaign was carried out within the project, funded by the Institutional Development Fund for Romanian Public Universities – FDI 2017. In this respect, teachers accompanied by a vocational adviser and students of UOC, went to high schools in rural localities, where they presented the workshop "Candidate for students – the importance of informed choice". Students received informative materials, attended vocational counseling sessions, and talked to students. At the end of the event, students had the opportunity to be included in an online group, which will facilitate communication between students, teachers, and college students and through which they will receive information on competitions and events organized for students, as well as information on admission to higher education.

Etapa a-II-a - FDI

I was a member of the project team entitled "GAUDEAMUS IGITUR – EQUAL CHANCES TO EDUCATION", code CNFIS-FDI-2018-0486, as an education expert. The project was funded by the Ministry of National Education, from the institutional development fund, area 1: increasing social equity, with a view to social inclusion and increasing access to higher education, linking educational supply with labor market demand (including those on career advice and guidance). The project was implemented between 08.06.2018–07.12.2018 and has a total value of 328330,00 lei. The funding from the institutional development fund is worth 280,000 lei. The project was carried out in 30 high schools and supported a campaign that made the opportunities offered by equal opportunities for education aware. During the work visits that the project team had with students from rural high schools, they received advice and preparation for informed career choice. The visits were organized in educational institutions in the communes located in the counties: Constanta, Tulcea, Calarasi, Brăila, Ialomița and Buzău and have as main purpose the orientation of students to higher education and the University.

Activities to promote the educational offer of the “Ovidius| University in Constanta

In 2013 we designed, organized, and deployed the "University" Ovidius Caravan which has become a tradition of promoting the educational offer of the "Ovidius" University, which is reflected in different marketing strategies presented through educational caravans designed and carried out over the last five years (2013-2018). Each academic year the University "Ovidius" of Constanta designed and developed a project of promotion, information and educational counseling that focused within the Educational Caravan held for three months (February-May of each year) in 60 high schools in the counties: Constanta, Tulcea, Ialomița, Calarasi. We have developed an information platform consisting of the site, "student guides", university presentation guides, and materials to promote the educational offer. I visited the high schools in the cities: Constanta, Mangalia, Cernavoda, Medgidia, Hârsova, Tulcea, Babadag, Măcin, Năvodari, Ovidiu, Calarasi, Fetești, Slobozia, Urziceni, Tandărei, Eforie Techirghiol. As part of the educational caravans, we organized visits to the high schools located in the countryside of Constanta and Tulcea counties.

Organization of Educational Fairs

Monitoring and promoting information actions on university education and university marketing strategy was presented as the occasion of several educational fairs.

Thus the University "Ovidius" of Constanta(UOC) organized on Saturday, May 13, 2017, the Educational Offer Fair, in the VIVO Constanta Shopping Center (second entrance), between 10.00 and 22.00. The event is conducted in partnership with the Constanta County School Inspectorate and the VIVO Shopping Centre, which provided generous space for the promotion actions. High school students interested in the educational offer of Ovidius University Ovidius were expected at the stands of the 16 faculties. In this way, they were able to find out all the information related to the two admission sessions, the July session, and the September 2017 session. At each booth, they were greeted by students and teachers who presented them with their specializations, the teaching body, and the facilities available to their faculties. At the same time, the opportunities in the labor market, the results achieved by graduates, and the career prospects were exposed. The aim of the event is for those interested in the UOC's educational offer UOC to benefit directly from information, guidance, and advice services for choosing the specialization suitable for their vocation. Media activities and collaborations:

- During 2014 we organized 42 editions of the Seaside Caravan TV which materialized in a journalistic marathon conducted in various localities in Dobruja. In the Caravan editions, we investigated the real problems of rural communities and created a public platform for discussions between local authorities and county authorities.
